Section 1: Getting to know you

Tell us more about your self. *

I am a focused person,I like to learn probably the main reason why I read books a lot. I have leadership qualities ,i like working with people who have or at least related goals as I do. Technology has always been a part of me when i was young I would crack the TV remote into pierces just to have a view of what makes it function the way it does(obviously I had a beating for that haha) . I have sense of humor and I have a obsession for success. I am always thinking about improving my self(I love personal development).

What are your main strengths? *

I am end-Goal (objective) orientated ,I like to work pressure, I am a quick thinker. I love working with people who have the willingness to learn and willingness to share information to better others because a person like that mirrors me.I am always thinking about improving my self(I love personal development)

What are your main weaknesses? *

if a group of people which we are suppose to work with is not serious or not taking the working seriously meaning they are not focused or not willing to get help or not really putting effort towards the Job being done.. I tend to do the work on my own ,and give the credit to the whole group.

What do you think are the characteristics that you poses that would make you the best candidate for the job? *

I love working with a group as well as working on my own. technology improves everyday which just suits my abilities of having the willingness to learn, I love sports the fact that i have been captain in almost every team that I have played for speaks volumes about my ability of being a team player, the ability to Communicate with motivation for the task at hand , being a example and my obsession of success. I am a programmer by profession but early this year I was a volunteer administrator clerk for Zigodlo Primary School just to widen my knowledge on Information Technology.

List 2 (two) things that you have learned about yourself in the last year. How did you learn this information? *

*focus is the key to mastery- I use to believe that I can do anything in any field and master it .. I have learn that this is true I can learn anything in any field and master it but I only have to focus on that one thing til i master it to the core then i can try to do another thing.

*forgiving - I have now learned to forgive people who I feel have done me wrong before they even apologize , this gets me to move from negative to positive energy faster and it makes me more productive to my work.

What annoys you about people or situation? What do you usually do about the situation * what annoys me about people or a situation is negative comments and energy ..what I usually do is try and put some positive energy and comments to the situation.

Describe the situations or circumstances that bring out the best in you, your work and your behaviour? *

working with people who are success oriented who believe in a win when everybody thinks its a loose. working with people who see them self's in their dreams than their reality. people who make the action do the talking, that kind of energy gets me influenced to give the best of my abilities, abilities that I never thought I could poses.

Provide information of a time when you did or said something that had a positive impact on a friend, family member, teacher or anyone else? *

when my (soccer)team was playing against wits university(which has a list of players playing for the national team) the team was losing with a huge score but I seat done with one player at halftime and I told him that "look this team is good and they know it .. but what they do not know is how good are you. if you happen to see these guys in the near future , do you think these guys would remember you? (he said no) this is the time for you to turn that know into a YES " he wont on and scored two goals the only goals we had that day .however we did loos 5:2. best believe we would've lost 5:0 had I not made the influence.

Provide information of a time when you did or said something that had a negative impact on a friend, family member, teacher or anyone else? *

when I told my parents that am not going back to school and I will not be looking for work.

What do you think about success? *

I think success is a beautiful think, it needs you to step out of your comfort zone , it grows you as a person and gives you confidence and wisdom to tell your story for others to also obtain success. I also believe that you never get to own success, you always have to maintain it ,as times are changing adjust.

What would you like to accomplish in the next 3,6,12 months? *

I would like to be more informed about my field (Information Technology), I like to have completed my drivers licence, would love to have developed more connections on the IT field.

What motivates you? *

working with people who are success oriented who believe in a win when everybody thinks its a loose. working with people who see them self's in their dreams than their reality. people who make the action do the talking, that kind of energy gets me influenced to give the best of my abilities, abilities that I never thought I could poses.it keeps me motivated
